

MVCTC Adult Education after High School

Thank you for choosing Miami Valley CTC Adult Education to continue your education beyond your high school diploma. Below are the steps necessary to gain the proper information and register for our classes.

Pre-Registration:

- Contact MVCTC Adult Education Office and identify yourself as an MVCTC HS graduate interested in the Scholarship Program
- Complete Work Keys Entrance Assessment Tests where required. These tests are given at no charge. Call 937-854-6297 to schedule your tests.

Registration

- Registration can be done in person
- Please bring a copy of your MVCTC passport and completed scholarship request form to the Adult Education Office. MVCTC Scholarships are valid for 1 year
- Contact the Adult Education Office for additional information at 937-854-6297

Payments:

- Short Term Courses – Short-term courses are not eligible for Financial Aide. Course fees must be paid at time of registration. Payment plans are available in some cases in which half of the course fee would be due at time of registration.
- Full Term Programs – Financial Aide is available for those not choosing to be self pay. Call our Financial Aide contact at 937-854-6072 for more information. Potential funding sources include: Pell Grants, Stafford Loans, Workforce Investment Act (WIA) and Veterans Benefits, etc.
- We accept cash, check, money orders, Visa, Master Card or Discover

Advantages for Choosing MVCTC Adult Education:

- May count as college credit when you continue at a Community College (Sinclair, Clarke State etc.) Contact Adult Education office for details.
