MVCTC Students Recognized at Violence Prevention Award Ceremony

Dayton, Ohio -- Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) students were recognized at the 19th Annual Violence Prevention Poster and Essay Contest awards ceremony. The event, held at the Dayton Masonic Center on Wednesday, May 20, showcased winners of the Violence Prevention Poster and Essay Contest, which is sponsored each year by Montgomery County Prosecutor Mat Heck, Jr. The contest included participants from 75 schools and over 1,600 entries. Prizes were awarded to all entrants, with special prizes being awarded to the top entries in each age group based on creativity and originality. MVCTC had five (5) students that received awards.

Jessica Webb (Eaton), a junior in the Legal Assistant program, received an award for "Honorable Mention for the Essay Contests (Level 9-12)".

Chanin Robison (Mississinawa Valley), Devin Taylor (Trotwood), seniors in the Legal Assistant program, and Sara Spurlock (Northridge), a junior in the Photography program, received awards for "Honorable Mention for the Poster Contests (Level 9-12)".

Christina Perkins (Eaton), a junior in the Legal Assistant program, received an award for "3rd Place for the Poster Contest (Level 9-12)". Christina's design will be displayed in Mr. Heck's 2010 Violence Prevention Calendar, which is distributed to students and area residents each year.

MVCTC is very proud of our students and congratulates them on their great accomplishments.
