MVCTC Superintendent Receives Two Awards at Buckeye Association of School Administrators Conference

Clayton, Ohio – Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) Superintendent, Dr. John Boggess, was honored at the 2010 Buckeye Association of School Administrators (BASA) Conference with the Dick Maxwell School Finance Award and the Saluting Exemplary Educational Leadership Award.

Dr. Boggess has over thirty-five years of experience at three Ohio career centers and one state university, and a passion for the mission of career technical education. He has held positions as a teacher, treasurer, business manager, comptroller, academic supervisor, assistant superintendent, and superintendent.

During Dr. Boggess's time as superintendent, MVCTC has received numerous national awards and has been featured in national publications for its partnerships with business and industry, post secondary institutions and for its lead role in workforce development. Under Dr. Boggess's leadership, MVCTC has also seen the creation of the Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math (STEM) academy, addition of Dual College Credit classes, development of Youth Connections for at risk youth, and expansion of the Adult Education offerings with the new Adult Education building in the fall of 2010.

Dr. Boggess is the recipient of numerous other awards for his dedication to career technical education in Ohio and nationally. He is currently President-Elect for the Ohio Association for Career Technical Education (ACTE). He was most recently appointed by the Ohio Board of Regents to the Ohio Articulation and Transfer Organizing Board. Dr. Boggess also serves on the Ohio e-Tech Commission and the Ohio Department of Education School Funding Advisory Council: Educational Linkages.
