MVCTC Hosts Representative Henne and Senator Beagle at Superintendents Meeting

Clayton, Ohio – Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) Superintendent, Dr. John Boggess, hosted the annual Career Technical Planning District Superintendent’s Meeting on Friday, April 15, for the administrators of the 27 MVCTC partner school districts. Superintendents from 21 of the partner schools attended with representatives from Darke, Miami, Montgomery, and Preble Counties.

The meeting started with a question and answer session with State Representative, Michael Henne of the 36th House District, and District 5 Senator Bill Beagle. Representative Henne ended the session by recognizing Dr. Boggess’ awards from the Buckeye Association of School Administrators (BASA) the Dick Maxwell School Finance Award and the Saluting Exemplary Educational Leadership Award.

The Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) is located in Clayton, Ohio and serves 27 area high schools in five counties and their communities. MVCTC offers career technical programs for high school juniors and seniors, and lifelong learning opportunities for adult students in the Adult Education programs. Working with local business and industry partners, MVCTC is helping to attract and create jobs for our region's economic growth.

In honor of the 40-year anniversary of MVCTC, a community recognition and anniversary celebration is planned for Saturday, May 14, 2011. All graduates from the Montgomery County Joint Vocational School (MCJVS) and the Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) both high school and adult education programs are encouraged to attend. The event will be on the MVCTC campus at 6800 Hoke Road in Clayton, Ohio, from 2-6 p.m. Please visit <http://www.mvctc.com/reunion.php> to learn more and to pre-register for the event.
