MVCTC Teachers Receive Ohio Master Teacher Recognition

Clayton, Ohio – The Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) is proud to announce that over the last three years, nineteen instructors have been recognized as State of Ohio Master Teachers. The three teachers to receive this distinction for 2011 are:

- Darlton Borradaile, Aviation Maintenance Tech Prep Instructor
- Lou Ann Haburn, Intervention Specialist
- Connie Marshal, Early Childhood Education Tech Prep Instructor

They join the following teachers who received this distinction in previous years. Roberta Phillips, Marketing and Media Tech Prep instructor, Eric Dolan, English instructor, Jessica Knisley, Science Instructor, Kelly Haws, Legal Assisting Tech Prep instructor, Diana Carlisle, English instructor, Brenda Wheat, Math instructor, Tammi Newbourn, Hospitality Services instructor, Diane Walker, Science instructor, Charles Brads III, Math instructor, Marie Carity, Agriculture Education instructor at Miami East, Beth Hughes, English instructor, Melissa Seifman, Computer Information Technology instructor, Robin Speer, Humanities instructor, Lisa Werbrich, English instructor, Bev Wolfe, Biotechnology Tech Prep instructor, Frank Wright, Math instructor and Richelle Zbinden, Math instructor.

In order to be eligible for the Master Teacher designation, educators must hold a valid professional license or certificate, have taught a minimum of seven years, and show evidence of each of the following criteria as described in the Ohio Standards for the Teaching Profession (<http://esb.ode.state.oh.us>). Master Teachers will achieve exemplary scores in four of five areas on the scoring guide, including consistent leadership, focused collaboration, distinguished teaching - focus on students and environment, distinguished teaching - focus on content, instruction and assessment, and continued professional growth.

The Ohio Department of Education describes the Master Teacher program as, “a way to recognize and honor teachers who go above and beyond district expectations. It creates a resource of teacher leaders to advance the profession and encourages high quality teachers to remain in the classroom.”

Carmen Hartzell, Professional Development Coordinator, coordinates and provides professional development opportunities to assist teachers in completing the application.

Superintendent, John Boggess, and the entire MVCTC staff, is very proud of the instructors and congratulates them on this great accomplishment.
