MVCTC Adult Education Medical Assisting Graduates Ready for Workforce

Clayton, Ohio – Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) Adult Education celebrated the graduation of 12 Medical Assisting students on Friday, June 10, 2011. Family and friends attended the graduation ceremony, held in the Adult Education Learning Center on the MVCTC campus.

The program included a welcome and congratulations by MVCTC Adult Education Supervisor, Amy Leedy, and by Kevin Pollard, student, guest speaker, Charlette Franklin, MVCTC Student Advocate, student speech by Cheryl Silvers, and a song by Aisha Taylor followed by the class slide show. Each graduates' name was then called and they walked across the front of the room and received their MVCTC Career Passport. Sue Steck, Medical Assisting Program Administrator and Instructor, gave the closing remarks followed by the final recessional.

Recent graduates from the Medical Assisting program include: Julie Bowers (New Lebanon), Corbin Brown (Dayton), Emily Fields (Germantown), Natasacha Hemmelgarn (New Madison), Henrietta Hooks (Trotwood), Erica Jacinski (Versailles), Kevin Pollard (Miamisburg), Sarah Seals (Centerville), Cheryl Silvers (Brookville), Arionne Simmons (Dayton), Kimberly Stone (Lewisburg), and Aisha Taylor (Huber Heights).

The Medical Assisting (MA) program at MVCTC is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs (CAAHEP) and is completed as full-time in 30 weeks over 9 months. This program prepares students to work as Medical Assistants in clinics of physicians, podiatrists, chiropractors, obstetricians and gynecologists following graduation.

MVCTC is committed to helping citizens of the Miami Valley find success in the job market, even a job market in turmoil. MVCTC Adult Education Classes for Fall Quarter start in September, visit ae.mvctc.com for more information.
