MVCTC Adult Education Nursing Graduates Complete Further Education at Kettering College of Medical Arts (KCMA)

Clayton, Ohio – Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) Adult Education would like to congratulate 19 practical nurse alumni on their pinning ceremony and graduation with an Associate of Science in Nursing from Kettering College of Medical Arts (KCMA).

These MVCTC alumni entered the KCMA program in January 2010. The Nursing Professional Pinning Ceremony took place in April with each student being pinned by the nurse of his or her choice. Five of 19 alumni were pinned by Martha Brown, Instructor at MVCTC's extension program at the Brethren Retirement Community (BRC) in Greenville, where MVCTC is able to offer PN classes in the Darke County area.

The 43rd annual commencement ceremony took place at the Dayton Convention Center on April 30, 2011. The alumni that successfully completed this recent KCMA program include James Ashcraft, Josh Ashcraft, LaShauna Hall, Jodi Hines, Tiffany Howard, Brenda Korzan, Teresa Lovely, Alendre McGhee, Sherri McGuire, Joyce McKinney, Jennifer Monroe, Christina Peck, Annette Powers-Kilburn, Ashley Rumpke, Amber Smith, Tunde Uso, Angela Wiley, Shannon Wood, and Jennifer Wynn.

KCMA Associate Professor Denise Sekerak states, "The students over all did exceptionally well and the nursing profession will be blessed with their dedication". In addition, several of the students have already started or plan to start working on their Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degrees.

MVCTC is committed to helping citizens of the Miami Valley find success in the job market, even a job market in turmoil. Adult Education classes for Fall Quarter
