MVCTC Students Place in 8th District Congressional Art Competition

Clayton, Ohio – Several Miami Valley Career Technology Center (MVCTC) students earned awards in Congressman Boehner’s 2012 8th District Congressional Art Competition.

MVCTC students earning awards included:

- Taylor Mitchell (Miami East 2012 graduate from the Graphic Commercial Art Program at MVCTC) 3rd place for her piece “I Like Turtles”
- Taylor Bellomy (Wayne 2012 graduate from the Graphic Commercial Art Program) Honorable Mention in Other Media Category for her piece “Dirty Little Liar”
- Chelsea Brown (Tippecanoe 2012 graduate from the Graphic Commercial Art Program) Honorable Mention in Other Media Category for her piece “Don’t Lose Your Marbles”
- David McCall (Troy 2012 graduate from the Graphic Commercial Photography Program) Honorable Mention in Photography Category for his piece “Two Birds of a Feather”

According to Congressman Boehner’s website, “The 2012 Congressional Art Competition“, An Artistic Discovery,” aims to showcase the artistic talents of 8th District high school students. The competition is open to students in grades nine through 12, who are residents of the 8th Congressional District.”

MVCTC is extremely proud of Taylor, Taylor, Chelsea, and David for their work and professionalism. To learn more about the MVCTC award winning Graphic Commercial Art and Photography programs, please visit www.mvctc.com.
